

HOME-MADE DYED RAINBOW RICE

YOU WILL NEED:

- white rice (buy the least expensive in bulk)
- vinegar
- mixing container (a bowl, a jar with a lid, or a plastic zip lock bag)
- liquid food coloring
- flat tray for drying

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. measure 1 cup of rice and pour in a bowl
2. add 1 tablespoon of vinegar to the rice
3. add 5 drops of food coloring
4. mix well for a few minute until all the rice grains are colored
5. pour on a tray & spread out into a thin layer

Repeat for each color

Please note, you can mix everything in a bowl or in a jar with a lid if you would prefer not to use a zip lock bag. If you do use a plastic bag, please rinse it and save for a future use.

Drying: it will dry faster on the sun, or in the over at a very low heat for 10 minutes.

Optional: add essential oils.
